Basic Information

- Duration : From August 2nd to 30th, 2015
 Staff : 40 members
 Sponsors : NGO ARUN, Osaka University
 Budget : 130,000 dollar
 Profit / Loss : 0
- In which UN MDG best fit (if apply) : ? : Eradicate extreme poverty and hunger
- Who is benefited ? : 25 domestic students, 3 foreign exchange students, and 10 overseas students.
- Objective : Based on the program for students living in Japan, the objective is to encourage participants and JCI Osaka members to make positive change and produce change makers.
- Overview : 1. JCI Osaka held Pre-PCY for 29 domestic students on August 2nd, 2015 and helped them understand the theme of this program and the actual situation of the local community by giving them lectures. JCI Osaka gave assignments beforehand and provided opportunities for them to enhance a sense of ownership in a group work.
 2. JCI Osaka took 30 students from home and abroad to Cambodia as a training program from August 22nd to 25th, 2015.
 3. Throughout the PCY from August 26th to 30th in 2015, JCI Osaka had field works and group discussion, and built an action plan to eradicate poverty.
 4. JCI Osaka held PCY Forum 2015 on August 30th in 2015, and made a presentation on the action plan in front of Osaka citizens.
- Results : 1. By getting lectured in Pre-PCY, students deepened understanding of the theme of this program and the actual situation of the local community. In addition, they enhanced a sense of ownership by doing assignments and taking part in a group work.
 2. By participating in the training program in Cambodia, students accepted various values, saw problems of each country and their background from a higher perspective, imagined a friendly relationship of people all over the world, and challenged positively with conviction.
 3. Through this PCY program, students learned that taking voluntary actions is necessary to develop a fruitful relationship with people from around the world.
 4. Through PCY Forum 2015, students made enough positive change to keep taking action with the aim of resolving various global issues.
- Actions Taken : JCI Osaka did the followings:
 Recruited domestic students.
 Led domestic students.
 Organized the program.
 JCI Phnom Penh did the followings:
 Screened students from abroad.
 Arranged and coordinated the visit.
 Organized the program.
- Recommendations : By holding PCY program, JCI Osaka could help participants understand about international cooperation necessary to achieve UN MDGs.
 JCI Osaka provided opportunities for students to make a presentation on the action plan to eradicate poverty in PCY Forum 2015. JCI Osaka encouraged them to care for others and bring a happy life to people all over the world.
 Improvements
 Because the contents of the lecture in PCY Forum 2015 were too professional, it was difficult for visitors and JCI Osaka members to fully understand the significance of the objectives.
 By having a close discussion with a lecturer, JCI Osaka could successfully share the significance of the objectives with visitors and JCI Osaka members.

Long-term Impact of the Program

What is the expected long-term impact of this project?

PCY program can be run in cooperation with other organizations and promote international interaction with JCI members from around the world such as Sister Chapters.

Students acquired international sensibility through this program and made positive change toward resolving global issues. When they find their job in the future, they are much likely to do an international business.

What changes would you make to improve the results of this project?

JCI Osaka needs to recruit active overseas students in the local community who can continue to cooperate with Sister Chapters and take voluntary actions.

JCI Osaka needs to systematize PCY fellows so that OBs and OGs can participate in the program and share their activities with each other after leaving JCI Osaka.
